FLOOR DEBATE

March 19, 2004 LB 1091

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Raikes. I'm sorry.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'm sorry. Little chicken. (Laugh) Senator Raikes, here's the question that I would ask you. At the bottom of the sheet of the committee amendment...maybe I ought to ask Senator Wehrbein, because it is the committee amendment. Senator Wehrbein, at the bottom of that sheet, the State Treasurer shall transfer $5 million from the State Lottery Operation Trust Fund. You said that's money from unclaimed winnings, if I heard you correctly. Is that true?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How much money is in that fund at this point?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Five point six million.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, so you're taking just about all of it that's...okay. Because I was wondering if we could find one of these other funds and take an additional $4 million from them. But before I say that, on the back page of the committee amendment sheet in our green book, we're talking about the Education Innovation Fund. Now, it talks about unobligated grant fund money. Is that the money that...unobligated balances existing as of a certain date, without giving a dollar figure. Is that true?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I'm not following where you're reading from, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, the last...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Are you in the amendment?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, the committee amendment.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: At the...where...
